a. Action Reported by Field

1. Preparations are being made to re-infiltrate the "Friday Team" into Albania by December.

2. Field's plans to infiltrate a new team (Wednesday) into Albania failed to materialize because one of the agents backed out of the operation at the last minute in order to emigrate from Greece.

3. Another field proposal to infiltrate a team (Saturday) into Albania the latter part of October was not approved by Headquarters due to the late date in which the proposal was submitted (early part of October); the lack of sufficient information on the proposal; and the number of risks unresolved. The operational season with regard to Albania usually ends in October.

b. Pending Action

1. Re-infiltration of the Friday Team.

2. Transfer of Cash from Greece to Turkey.

c. Security Factors

Recently there have been indications that the Albanian Intelligence Service has stepped up its efforts to infiltrate into Greece a large number of their agents under the guise of refugees. Several refugees have admitted to their role of agents and others are under suspicion. Field, because of being bogged down with these CE cases has turned over several agent suspects to the Greek authorities for further interrogation. It is not impossible that the Lavrion Refugee Camp, which is presently our chief source of agent material, has been penetrated by the Albanian I. S.
